AIR UNLIMITED

@airunltdliverpool

Air Unlimited’s trampoline and indoor activity parks have quickly become one of the North West’s most popular family entertainment destinations. Since opening its Liverpool site near Speke Hall, the park has attracted thousands of families each month looking for an exciting, active day out. With over 110 interconnected trampolines, ninja-style activity zones, climbing walls and high-energy challenge areas, the venue has successfully combined physical activity with immersive indoor entertainment.

Behind the scenes, delivering a high-quality experience for guests requires a reliable supply chain for food, drinks and operational essentials. For Air Unlimited, that trusted partner is JJ Foodservice.

JJ Foodservice supplies the park with everything it needs to keep operations running smoothly – from food and beverages served at the café, to packaging and hygiene products used throughout the venue. The partnership allows the Air Unlimited team to focus on delivering memorable experiences for visitors while relying on a dependable supplier that understands the demands of busy leisure venues.

The team also praise the service they receive from JJ Foodservice, particularly the consistent product quality and friendly delivery teams that help keep the park stocked and ready for the thousands of visitors it welcomes every month.

“WORKING WITH JJ FOODSERVICE HAS BEEN FANTASTIC FOR US. THE QUALITY OF THE PRODUCTS IS ALWAYS EXCELLENT, THE RANGE MEANS WE CAN GET EVERYTHING WE NEED IN ONE PLACE, AND THE SERVICE IS INCREDIBLY RELIABLE. James | Manager

As Air Unlimited continues to grow as a destination for active family entertainment, its partnership with JJ Foodservice ensures the business has the support it needs to keep delivering high standards both on and off the trampoline floor.

WILDFIRE CATERING

@wildfire_catering_ltd

Owner of Wildfire Catering, Paul Andrews, takes his bangers and burgers on tour around the UK every summer for four months at a time, serving up to a thousand people a day at some of the biggest festivals including Glastonbury, Latitude, Reading, Boardmasters and lots more, before settling for the winter in Hyde Park's Winter Wonderland.

“WE HAD 1,000 CUSTOMERS A DAY OVER TWO DAYS AND WE SOLD THOUSANDS OF CHEESEBURGERS AND CHICKEN BURGERS.”

While Paul has vegetarian and vegan options, he says that his meat burgers are the most popular. “When we catered for Liam Gallagher at Knebworth House, we had 1,000 customers a day over two days and we sold thousands of cheeseburgers and chicken burgers.

“When I began festival catering in 2005, I was looking for a supplier that could cater to my needs, which is when I came across JJ Foodservice, and I was surprised at how reasonable their prices were compared to other suppliers. I started collecting my orders from the Enfield branch, when I got talking to another trader who told me JJ deliver directly to festival sites – since then, I never looked back.”

THE GOOD HONEST FOOD CO.

@the.good.honest.food.co

Former restaurateur and consultant, John Dickens, treated himself to a custom built, state-of-the-art food truck for his 60th birthday, after hanging up his apron at his three high-class restaurants. At the age of 65, John has no intentions of slowing down any time soon, with his diary already filled with festivals for the upcoming season.

“THE CHIPS I USE FROM JJ FOR MY PIMPED UP CHIPS ARE THE BEST I’VE EVER USED IN MY WHOLE TIME AS A CHEF”

Over the years, John has built up a range of concessions including Funky Wraps, Pimped Up Chips, Big John’s Mac & Cheese and Mother Tuckers, to name a few. “I have to admit that the chips I use from JJ for my Pimped Up Chips are the best I’ve ever used in my whole time as a chef. They are amazing quality, and my customers are always complimenting them, saying they are the nicest chips they have ever eaten.”

“It’s great to have a supplier that offers a good range of products, with a quality that matches. JJ’s online ordering system is fantastically efficient and very easy to work with, and being able to have my orders delivered directly to festival sites is a real bonus for me.”
